JUNO BEACH POLICE FOUNDATION FORMED

JUNO BEACH, FL (April 26, 2018) – In a presentation made to the Town Council of Juno Beach, Mr. Thomas F. Murphy announced the formation of the Juno Beach Police Foundation. Mr. Murphy is the President of the organization.

Murphy indicated that the mission of the organization was to secure public funding to further enhance the safety of Juno Beach and the effectiveness of the Juno Beach Police Department. The foundation will provide grants to the Town for the purchase of new equipment, in-service training and advanced law-enforcement technology for the Police Department. The Foundation will also help fund community outreach programs focused on public safety.

Members of the Board of Directors include Jon Luther, former chairman and CEO of Dunkin' Brands, Joe Rooney, Vice President of the Palm Beach Kennel Club, Mrs. Dawn Hoffman, of Hoffman Partners and a Guardian Ad Litem in Palm Beach County, Lew Wheeler, former chairman and CEO of Rapidigm, Inc. and John Large, Sr. Director of Security at NextEra Energy/Florida Power and Light. A representative of TBC Corporation, the parent of Tire Kingdom will be named shortly. Both TBC and FPL have headquarters offices in Juno Beach.

Mr. Murphy indicated that the Foundation will raise funds by direct mail marketing and locally sponsored events. He stressed that they will not employ telemarketers or outside direct marketing organizations to raise funds for the foundation.
